First Sunday after Christmas Day

Receiving the Light, Being the Light, Sharing the Light

The scripture lessons for the first Sunday of Christmas open with the phrase "I will recount the gracious deeds of the Lord" - a fitting passage to acknowledge God's overflowing kindness in the gift of his son Jesus. The author of Hebrews points to the ways in which Jesus identifies with us in our humanity. In the words of early church historian Irenaeus, "He became what we are, that we might become what he is " The lesson from Matthew shows what he is." The lesson from Matthew shows that Jesus' suffering began early. As King Herod seeks to kill the children of Israel, Jesus becomes a child refugee and his family is forced from their homeland out of fear.
