+AFFIRMATION OF FAITH #888 Ed Paxton
This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved:

Christ died for our sins, was buried, was raised on the third day, and appeared first to the women, then to Peter and the Twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses. We believe Jesus is the Christ, the Anointed One of God, the firstborn of all creation, the firstborn from the dead, in whom all things hold together, in whom the fullness of God was pleased to dwell by the power of the Spirit.

Continued...
Christ is the head of the body, the church, and by the blood of the cross reconciles all things to God. Amen.

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

Receiving the Light, Being the Light, Sharing the Light

This week in both the Epistle lesson and Gospel text hear about Jesus compassionately drawing people to himself. Paul in Ephesians 2:11-22 shares the good news how in Jesus "those who were once far away have been brought near". The Gospel of Mark 6:30-34 shares how even when Jesus and the disciples were seeking solitude the people recognized Jesus and gathered around him. In his great love he had compassion for them instead of sending them away.
